

Ric Roi Joins Korn Ferry as Senior Client Partner

August 13, 2019

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 13, 2019-- Korn Ferry (NYSE:KFY) today announced Ric Roi has joined the firm as a senior client partner. He is based in Korn Ferry's Singapore office.

Roi has over 22 years of consulting experience. He has advised a range of board and CEO clients in board renewal, CEO progression, top team effectiveness and executive development.

Prior to joining Korn Ferry, Roi was a managing director and the Asia Pacific head of leadership succession services for a global leadership advising firm. Before that, he led the global leadership center of excellence and consulting services in Asia at Right Management, a talent management services firm.

"Ric is known for his integrity and his ability to understand and strategize within complex organizations," said May Knight, president of Asia Pacific, Advisory, Korn Ferry. "His years of leadership and industry expertise will be invaluable to the team, and we are thrilled to have him on board to serve our clients."

Roi received his bachelor's degree in engineering from the University of Arizona and his doctoral degree in leadership and organization from University of San Francisco.
